Corporations can

SPEND UNLIMITED (AND MOSTLY SECRET)
MONEY TO INFLUENCE
OUR ELECTIONS

Since January 2010, corporations have been legally allowed to spend unlimited amounts of money in our elections on behalf of candidates who, when elected, owe the corporations favors. So even though “we the people” go to the polls and vote for candidates, once they’re in office they must work on behalf of the corporate interests, not what’s good for American families.

It isn’t right. And it isn’t American.

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled that corporations have the same rights as people, but you know that isn’t true, because only people are people. Our democracy belongs to us and it’s up to every voter to demand that Congress pass a constitutional amendment to reverse Citizens United.
